

Monday 16th October 2023

LI: To write a fractured tale

One rainy morning in a busy town, lived an evil eye looking wolf with razor sharp teeth like a horrible monster. He was looking for some delicious meat from the people, animals and birds. In the distance, he saw a girl with a basket of sticky caramel toffees. But he was so hungry he followed the careless, young girl with ginger locks. Her name was Little Red and she had a very strict, reckless mother. All her mother cared for was fancy, fabulous glasses, sparkly dresses and natural, gentle skincare. She didn't even care about her poor, blue eyed daughter!

Anyway, the hungry wolf slowly and sneakily crept towards the careless girl trying to have a good look. The more she went the more scarier it was in the deep, spooky forest. Then he came up to her and sneakily smiled.

"Hello little girl where may you be going in this spooky forest?" asked the wolf.

"There may be lots of things happening here."

But Little Red didn't want to talk to him so she had a plan so that he could stop talking and she could run away from him.

"Would you like a delicious toffee?" asked Little Red.

"They're actually new limited ones they don't stick to your stoney shiny teeth and I promise!"

She begged and begged him until he finally said yes. Little Red's powerful plan worked! The wolf stopped trying to get the STICKY toffee out. She rushed to granny's old house and the furious wolf got angry!

"Bye Bye loser!" said Little Red with her horrible attitude.

As always, she took the very long way but the wolf took the dirty short way. He came first. He put on a pink night gown and shoved granny harshly into her pink closet. The wolf jumped on the soft bed and that was the time when the little girl came with her black, extended skirt. But she was asking him lots of weird questions.

"Oh granny what big eyes you have?"

"Ahh ~~the~~ these are good contacts I got them from Specsavers."

"Oh granny what big eyes you have?"

"Ok I guess but where did you get those big teeth?" asked the girl.

He didn't know what to do so he just got out of the bouncy bed and jumped on Little Red but good she ran away because you wouldn't like to see what happened next. Anyway, she went outside trying to find granny.

She started screaming so loud the sweaty woodcutter came running. He came <sup>and</sup> cut the tangled tail of the wolf. He came out screaming with huge pain. I will never go to that house ever again.

"It was never my fault!" shouted the wolf.

So granny was sent to the hospital the woodcutter now was their new body guard Little Red was always rude her mum cared only about money & but the wolf talking to her that she may be beautiful but she's got a greedy heart. She was worried because when she went outside, her eyes hurt <sup>so</sup> much of the light. Manyara held <sup>tightly</sup> Nyasha and ~~cried~~ <sup>sobbed</sup> but Nyasha was very brave so she went inside <sup>the palace</sup>.

Nyasha came inside and saw <sup>a</sup> tiny <sup>garden</sup> snake called Nyoka. She laughed <sup>extremely</sup> until Nyoka changed into a prince. He asked her if she would marry him and she said Yes.

After the <sup>immense</sup> marriage they had a giant, scrumptious feast. Manyara was very ungrateful. She wanted to be <sup>a</sup> Queen <sup>powerful</sup> but she became an <sup>unfortunate</sup> servant. Manyara was very <sup>proud</sup> of Nyasha. So one day Manyara took revenge on her sister! WHAT WILL HAPPEN next ??? <sup>(spooky music)</sup> ~~(creepy music)~~

Nyasha was very kind *

* "You will be a dirty servant for me when I'm going to be a rich Queen!" exclaimed ~~the~~ <sup>the</sup> Manyara.

* "I shall be your servant but why do you say such thing?" poor Nyasha asked. Manyara gave no answer.

In an amazing far away land, a powerful king called Nyoka sent a trust worthy messenger to spread the word that he wants a very unpredictable and worthy in an excited manner. Manyara was the father of two daughters. Manyara was jealous and Nyasha was very kind.

"You will be a dirty servant for me when I'm going to be a rich Queen!" exclaimed Manyara.

"I shall be your servant but why do you say such thing?" poor Nyasha asked.

Manyara gave no answer. "Why are you such a Karen" asked Nyasha.

Manyara was very jealous so she sneaked slowly out at night and started her journey eagerly. She arrived at a mystical and adventurous forest but she was cautious because it was horribly scary. On her way she heard poor people shouting for help consistently and it was very scary that time. So she walked calmly away from them. On her weird journey she saw three strange creatures with big eyes and small ears. She ignored them and peacefully carried on with her journey.

Manyara entered the magnificent palace and instantly ran away because she saw blinding light which started talking to her that she may be beautiful but she's got a greedy heart. She was worried because when she went outside, her eyes hurt so much of the light. Manyara tightly held Nyasha and sobbed but Nyasha was very brave so she went inside the palace.