Below, are two examples of descriptive scenes that try to build tension and end on a cliffhanger- but I think you could make them even better!

TASK:

Choose one scene and work to improve it using powerful adjectives, tension building techniques and ending them on a cliffhanger that leaves us on the edge of our seat! You could even create your own!

Liam walked through the forest. The trees were tall and quiet. He heard a noise behind him. He turned around, but nothing was there. He kept walking, but the noise came again...

Sophie stepped into the old house. Dust covered the floor. She held her torch out in front of her. A door upstairs creaked. She slowly climbed the stairs, trying not to make a sound.
