

5. Circle two verbs in each of the sentences.

Are you eating lunch with me today?

James finished his homework before playing football with friends.

6. Circle the verb in each of the sentences.

Please help me.

My hamster runs quickly on his wheel.

The snow is bright white.

Hamza was late for school again.

7. Circle the four verbs in this sentence.

When I was out with my nan, I noticed a large flock of birds circling in the sky before swooping down towards the field.

8. Which sentence uses the underlined word as a verb?

Tick one.

Will you visit me again soon?..... ☐

I ate the sweets quickly so I didn't have to share. ☐

Working together, we completed our homework in record time. ☐

Please take your shoes off at the door. ☐