

Relative Clauses	Possessive Apostrophes	Spelling
Circle the relative pronoun and add commas to show the relative clause. The pumpkin which had a face carved into it was placed outside the house. 	Rewrite this sentence to show plural possession. During the final round, all of the gymnast's routines were exceptional.	Mr Whoops has been juggling with one of his UKS2 spelling words. Unscramble the letters to find the word. r i c e i f c s a
Suffixes	Pronouns	Present Perfect Form
Write a word with the -able suffix to match each definition. _____ : Worth lots of money. _____ : Always there when you need them. _____ : Fit for the job.	Circle all of the pronouns. Santiago was running very late. He would surely be late for his dentist appointment; they would be waiting for him. 	Write the given verbs in the present perfect form. She _____ her test. to finish ↑ We _____ in this house all my life. to live ↑

Relative Clauses	Possessive Apostrophes	Spelling
Circle the relative pronoun and add commas to show the relative clause. The pumpkin, which had a face carved into it, was placed outside the house.	Rewrite this sentence to show plural possession. During the final round, all of the gymnast's routines were exceptional. During the final round, all of the gymnasts' routines were exceptional.	Mr Whoops has been juggling with one of his UKS2 spelling words. Unscramble the letters to find the word. r i c e i f c s a sacrifice
Suffixes	Pronouns	Present Perfect Form
Write a word with the -able suffix to match each definition. valuable: Worth lots of money. reliable: Always there when you need them. suitable: Fit for the job.	Circle all of the pronouns. Santiago was running very late. He would surely be late for his dentist appointment; they would be waiting for him.	Write the given verbs in the present perfect form. She has finished her test. to finish ↑ We have lived in this house all my life. to live ↑