

Possessive Pronouns

Write a sentence about the picture using a possessive pronoun.

Prefixes

Add the prefix dis- or mis- to these root words to make a word with the opposite meaning.

_____ spell

_____ allow

Possessive Apostrophes

Rewrite this sentence adding the missing apostrophe of plural possession.

The geeses wings flapped gracefully as they set off on their journey.

Fronted Adverbials

Write a sentence about this picture that contains a fronted adverbial with the appropriate punctuation.

Spelling

Underline Mr Whoops's four spelling mistakes. Write the corrections underneath.

Entering the foriegn country, Mr Whoops's identtity was checked. The officer immediatally let him through when he recognised his passport photograph.

Suffixes

Add -ing and -ed to each root word. Include any other necessary letter changes too.

	-ing	-ed
refer transfer infer

Possessive Pronouns	Prefixes	Possessive Apostrophes
Write a sentence about the picture using a possessive pronoun. Accept any sentence about the picture that uses a possessive pronoun, e.g. She couldn't believe the medal was hers.	Add the prefix dis- or mis- to these root words to make a word with the opposite meaning. misspell disallow	Rewrite this sentence adding the missing apostrophe of plural possession. The geeses wings flapped gracefully as they set off on their journey. The geese's wings flapped gracefully as they set off on their journey.
Fronted Adverbials	Spelling	Suffixes
Write a sentence about this picture that contains a fronted adverbial with the appropriate punctuation. Accept any sentence with a fronted adverbial marked with a comma, e.g. From a distance, the group watched as the fireworks lit up the sky.	Underline Mr Whoops's four spelling mistakes. Write the corrections underneath. Entering the foriegn country, Mr Whoops's identtity was checked. The officer immediatally let him through when he recognissed his passport photograph. foreign identity immediately recognised	Add -ing and -ed to each root word. Include any other necessary letter changes too. <table border="1"> <tr> <td></td><td>-ing</td><td>-ed</td></tr> <tr> <td>refer</td><td>referring</td><td>referred</td></tr> <tr> <td>transfer</td><td>transferring</td><td>transferred</td></tr> <tr> <td>infer</td><td>inferring</td><td>inferred</td></tr> </table>		-ing	-ed	refer	referring	referred	transfer	transferring	transferred	infer	inferring	inferred
	-ing	-ed
refer	referring	referred transfer	transferring	transferred
infer	inferring	inferred												